

Kick Off Event at Jasper, A Great Success!

By Rita Riddle

On June 23rd Clarian Telemedicine welcomed its newest partner, Memorial Hospital in Jasper, Indiana. Memorial Hospital serves Dubois and surrounding counties in southern Indiana. Speakers for the event included, Ray Snowden, Memorial Hospital's President and CEO, Dr. Norma J. Kreilein, M.D., Jeff Heffelfinger, Administrative Director – Cancer Program, Clarian Health, and Dr. Richard Schreiner, Chairman of Pediatrics, Riley Hospital for Children.

Memorial Hospital came on board as an affiliate with the Indiana University Simon Cancer Center and will be participating in many educational events with Clarian physicians and Indiana University Oncologists. Memorial will be building clinical services starting with Pediatric Urology.

Ray Snowden, Memorial Hospital's President and CEO was quoted as saying "We're very pleased that Memorial Hospital has been given this direct connection to the specialists at Riley and Indiana University Simon Cancer Center. This will put their expertise at our fingertips and will benefit our patients, physicians and staff which will result in a better quality of health care for everyone." The Indiana Rural Health Association Honors Dr. Charles Lewis

By Rebecca Salley

Dr. Charles Lewis was honored by the IRHA on June 7th, 2007 with a Public Service Award for his work in Telemedicine. Rebecca Salley, from Clarian Telemedicine, and Erik Southard, from The Richard G. Lugar Center for Rural Health were honored to co present this award to Dr. Lewis. Dr. Lewis has performed over 137 consults since starting telemedicine with Clarian in the Fall of 2006. He has been an active physician in the program and often helps telemedicine staff improve existing processes. Dr. Lewis is loved by all staff and patients who come into contact with him. A mother from Dubois county wrote, "Very grateful- getting in sooner means everything when your child has something wrong." Another parent was quoted as saying, "Dr. Lewis was very pleasant, personable, and took the time to make an informed decision." Clarian Telemedicine thanks Dr. Lewis for his commitment to his patients and telemedicine.
